

FOREWORD

In beginning the Minutes of the North Carolina Lodge of Research, it seems but fitting that some history of this lodge should be given and a brief sketch of its founders be herein recorded, that they may live on perpetual record as a memorial to those who have ~~had~~ the love of a ~~fraternity~~ so deeply cherished) that they were determined to make an effort to promote the further interest of that Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons by legally organizing and chartering a Lodge of Research, that the craft of the State of North Carolina might be benefitted by the efforts of such a body in their midst.

To our friend and brother J.Ray.Shute, ~~W.~~, P.M. goes the honor and credit of forming this Lodge of Research in the City of Monroe, North Carolina, and through his efforts was the first movement made to get the Grand Lodge of North Carolina to listen favorable to the idea of having a Lodge of Research in this Grand Jurisdiction. In the early part of 1930, Brother Shute began talking Lodge of Research and soon secured as his staunch and worthy helper and coworker, Brother Walter C.Crowell, P.D.D.G.M.. Together, these two dear friends and brothers worked and planned, dreaming of a great work in the field of Masonic research and education that could, and should, be done in this State. Numerous letters were written and innumerable questions asked about this great problem and soon these two Masons were beginning to feel that their efforts were to finally become realised. Special trips were made to Raleigh, where an equally interested friend and brother in the person of P.G.M. John H. Anderson, Grand Secretary, was conferred with and many were the wise and helpful suggestions that he gave, in all instances trying in his friendly way to cautiously lead the way for a successful meeting with the Grand Master, whereby Dispensation could be received. This was accomplished and in a little room in the old National Hotel at Wadesboro, ^{NC}, on the night of E.W.Timberlake, Jr., Most Worshipful Grand Master and P.G.M. John H. Anderson met with the Monroe brethren and details were worked out to form the Lodge of Research. It should be stated here that of all the enthusiastic Masons, interested in the forming of this new Lodge, none were more interested or helped to any greater extent than did the Most Worshipful Grand Master. When the Monroe brethren left the hotel late that night, they did so with a deep sense of appreciation for the earnest help and cooperation of North Carolina's Grand Master and Grand Secretary in their behalf. This Grand Jurisdiction shall ever remember these two distinguished sons and this Lodge now goes on record as appreciating the efforts and work of these two Masons and feel that without the proper help received from them, a lodge of this type should never have been established in this great State.

On returning home, Brothers Shute and Crowell began a rapid canvas of the Masons in Monroe to secure the Charter Members for the Lodge of Research, knowing that this particular field of endeavor would be of little interest to the average Mason. They were successful in obtaining nineteen other interested Masons and thus began the legal application for Dispensation, which resulted in the ^{legal} grafting of the Dispensation by the Most Worshipful Grand Master on the 7th. day of November 1930, thereby fulfilling the dreams of the founders.

The following were the Charter Members of the North Carolina Lodge of Research: J.Ray.Shute, ~~W.~~, Walter C.Crowell, Edwin Niven, Olin B.Sikes, E.Clayton Laney, N.M.Redfern, John J.Goudelock, Carr Bowie, J.P.Hudson, H.H.Wilson, W.A.Morrow, J.M.Morrow, F.M.Smith, G.M.Smith, W.Harvey Morrison, R.H.Garren, R.D.Pearson, J.P.Gamble, H.D.Hinde, W.J.Rudge, and Robt.E.Lee.

LEON GODOWN, DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTER

TWENTY-FIFTH MASONIC DISTRICT

CONCORD, NORTH CAROLINA

September 25, 1947

Dear Ray:

Am enclosing a copy of the minutes of the meeting in Concord on September 19th, which I wrote in the absence of our Secretary.

You will note that in the opening of The North Carolina Lodge of Research, I stated that the Lodge was "opened with the following officers present" rather than stating that they occupied their regular stations and places, and recorded some of the members present as filling one or two stations and places. If I have listed any of them oncorrectly, please arrange them properly.

It was a real pleasure to see you again, even for so brief a period. From what I can gather from various Brethren who were present, I'm sure everyone is agreed that this was a splendid meeting.

Please give my best regards to Sarah, and to "Uncle Henry" Green. The nest time you are over this way, please stop in at the school for a few minutes. I would like to talk over a few matter with you.

Sincerely,

The Worshipful Master of Stokes Lodge extended greetings to the nearly 400 Masons assembled, expressing his delight with such a fine attendance, despite the fact that the evening was so extremely hot, and that a football game was being played on nearby Webb Field.

R. W. Leon Godown, District Deputy Grand Master of the Twenty-fifth Masonic District of North Carolina, was then introduced by Brother E. W. Liverman.

He was given grand honors and was escorted to the East, where the Worshipful Master greeted him cordially, and then requested that he act as Grand Marshall during the presentation of a number of distinguished guests.

The acting Grand Marshall presented a number of North Carolina's most distinguished Masons before the East, where they were accorded grand honors, after which they were escorted to the rostrum. These eminent Masons were received in the following order: M. E. ~~Exempt~~ F. McKeel, PGHP, of Washington, Grand Secretary-Recorder of the Grand York Rite Bodies of North Carolina; R. E. John H. Parker, of New Bern, Grand Commander, Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of North Carolina; M. E. ~~X~~ Charles C. Pugh, of Gastonia, Grand Steward of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina; R. W. Wilbur L. McIver, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina; Most Worshipful Luther T. Hartsell, Jr., Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina.

R. W. Leon Godown, DDGM, then re-convened the communication of the Twenty-fifth Masonic District of North Carolina. The roll call of the lodges of this district revealed that there were 385 Brethren present.

The North Carolina Lodge of Research, No. 666, had 13 members in attendance. Other lodges represented, with a total of 17 members present, were as follows: Greensboro Lodge, No. 76, Greensboro; Oxford Lodge, No. 122, Oxford; Forest City Lodge, No. 381, Forest City; Mt. Hermon Lodge, No. 118, Asheville; Raleigh Lodge, No. 500, Raleigh; St. John's Lodge, No. 3, New Bern; Joppa Lodge, No. 520, Charlotte; Wake Forest Lodge, No. 282, Wake Forest; Sanford Lodge, No. 151, Sanford; Gastonia Lodge, No. 369, Gastonia; Orr Lodge, No. 104, Washington, N. M.; Ranah Lodge, No. 39, Danville, Va.; Akron Lodge, No. 83, Akron, Ohio.

Worshipful Brother Duckett, Master of Stokes Lodge, No. 32, then introduced Worshipful Brother J. Ray Shute, Grand Orator of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, who was one of the founders, and the first Master of the North Carolina

Lodge of Research, No. 666. Brother Shute gave a synopsis of the history of that lodge in a most engaging manner. By reason of being one of the most brilliant students of Masonry in the State and Nation, Brother Shute presented a highly interesting word picture of the purpose for which the Lodge of Research was founded; its past accomplishments; and its plans for the future.

The Worshipful Master presented R. W. Leon Godown, PM, DDGM, historian of Stokes Lodge, No. 32, who spoke briefly on the early history of the lodge 150 years ago. He also called attention to important contributions many of its members had made to the efforts of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina in promoting the doctrines of Masonry down through the years.

Worshipful Brother Royal C. Stephenson, Master of the North Carolina Lodge of Research, No. 666, in a few well-chosen words, then introduced M. W. Edgar W. Timberlake, Past Grand Master.

M. W. Brother Timberlake, who is head of the law school of Wake Forest College, has a nation-wide reputation as an eminent leader in Freemasonry, and as an excellent orator. His subject for the evening's discussion was "What It Means To Be a Mason."

M. W. Brother Timberlake began by stating that he first wanted to point out what it does not mean to be a Mason, as follows: (1) To be a Mason does not mean merely to receive three degrees; (2) It does not mean merely to assume three obligations; (3) It does not mean merely to wear the lambskin, or white leather apron; (4) It does not mean merely to have the privilege of wearing the Square and Compasses. To be a Mason, he added, does not mean any one or all of these things.

The speaker then told his listeners that to be a Mason means the following things:

(1) To be a Mason means ever to hold high the ideals and principles of Masonry; (2) It means to exemplify these ideals and principles in our daily avocations; (3) It means to exemplify these ideals and principles in brotherly love. Love is the greatest motivating force of the universe in which we live; (4) It means to exemplify these ideals and principles in unselfish service to our fellow men; (5) It means to exemplify these ideals and principles in loyalty, one of the greatest human attributes; (6) It means to exemplify these ideals and principles in toleration; (7) It means to exemplify these ideals and principles in good citizenship. A good Mason is always a good citizen.

The splendid address by M. W. Brother Timberlake was really a masterpiece, and it was thoroughly appreciated by the entire assemblage. It was the consensus of opinion of those present that this address was one of the very finest heard in this district in many years.

Most Worshipful Grand Master Hartsell, a beloved member of Stokes Lodge, No. 32, was then presented, and he received a tremendous ovation. Thus far, in the discharge of his duties as Grand Master of Masons in North Carolina, he has endeared himself to Masons in each district he has visited. He has left no doubt in the minds of members of the Craft throughout the State that he will be recognized as one of the greatest Grand Masters ever to occupy that exalted position.

Rev. Brother A. DeLeon Gray, superintendent of Oxford Orphanage, that home for underprivileged children, so dear to the hearts of all North Carolina Masons, was next introduced. He extended greetings from the more than 300 children entrusted to his care, and spoke briefly on the work of that institution.

R. W. Gilbert H. Hendrix, PM, PDDGM, who is general chairman of the Stokes Lodge sesqui-centennial committee, was called to the rostrum, and was heartily commended for the splendid work he and the members of his committee are doing.

Next in order were some announcements by Brother Jesse N. Parker, Jr. W., secretary of the sesqui-centennial committee, concerning plans for a great 150th anniversary celebration to be held by Stokes Lodge, No. 32, on December 2, 1947.

The Twenty-fifth Masonic District attendance prize, a silver gavel, was again won by Keller Memorial Lodge, No. 657, Of Rockwell. This lodge had 66.7 per cent of its entire membership present, thus enabling the Brethren from Rockwell to take home the prize for the third consecutive year.

There being no further business, Stokes Lodge, No. 32 and the North Carolina Lodge of Research, No. 666, were closed in due form.
